60 MINUTES

05/05/02 "Hell No, We Won't Go"- a report on 450 Israeli soldiers, called 'refuseniks,' who though willing to defend Israel with their lives, are now refusing to fight in the occupied territories. Includes interviews with Dr. Yoram Ezrahi, a political scientist; Limor Livnat, an Israeli Cabinet Member; and Dr. Yigal Shochat, a former Israeli Air Force Colonel and physician. (C: Bob Simon - P: Solly Granatstein)

"Better Safe Than Sorry"- tiny breast tumors, called DCIS (ductal carcinomas in situ), now detected regularly due to increasingly sensitive mammograms, may not be life threatening but many women are aggressively treating them. Includes interviews with: Dr. Annette Brown, radiologist at St. Vincent's Hospital in New York; Dr. Donald Berry, cancer statistics analyst; Dr. Eric Winer, oncologist at Dana-Farber in Boston; and Dr. Stephen Friend, president of the biotech firm Rosetta Informatics. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen Sughrue)

"The Terrorist's Lawyer"- New York lawyer Lynne Stewart discusses the indictment Attorney General John Ashcroft brought against her for allegedly passing a message to followers of her client, convicted terrorist Sheik Omar Abdel-Rahman. Stewart maintains that she was in no way part of a terrorist conspiracy but simply acted as her client's attorney. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)

Andy Rooney Topics: "Rooney On Rations" - U.S. Army rations

05/12/02 "Is There A Gun In The House?"- examines the issue of whether doctors should ask their patients, as a matter of their health, if they keep a gun in their homes. Includes interviews with: Dr. Danielle Laraque, Mount Sinai Hospital, N.Y.C.; Dr. Jeremiah Barondess, New York Academy of Medicine; Dr. Mark McKenney, Ryder Trauma Center in Miami, who claim that gun ownership is a health issue; and with Dr. Tim Wheeler, a California surgeon and Dr. Anire Okpaku, a surgery resident at the Ryder Center, who disagree. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Borne)

"Halabja: 14 Years Later"- focuses on the Kurdish town of Halabja, where the effects of Saddam Hussein's 1988 chemical weapons attack -- a high incidence of cancer, miscarriages, birth defects and neurological damage -- are still evident. Includes an interview with Dr. Christine Gosden, head of medical genetics at Liverpool University, who visited Halabja four years ago. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)

"Hugo Chavez" - an interview with Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez about his rise to power, his ouster through a coup, and subsequent reinstatement. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Library Rules To Shelve" - Andy's pet peeves on libraries

05/19/02 "Castro"- because of damage done by a recent hurricane and the September 11 terrorist attacks, the economy of Communist Cuba has come to depend on the currency of its enemy, the U.S. Despite their own anti-Castro sentiments and a U.S. embargo, Cuban-Americans have managed to send millions of dollars a year to relatives in Cuba who in turn spend it stores owned by the Castro government. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen Sughra) (OAD: 11/25/01)

"Joe Bonanno"- the last of the old-time Mafia dons, Joseph Bonanno, died last week at the age of 97. In his only television interview, he spoke about the crime world and other real-life godfathers. MAY02PUBAFFAIRS

05/26/02 "The Bicycle Thief"- California's three strikes law puts third-time offenders, even non-violent ones, in jail for 25-years-to-life. Critics say the law is unjust and cost-ineffective because it has filled state prisons with petty criminals. Proponents claim that it is the only effective way to remove repeat offenders from society. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick) (oad: 05/07/00)

"Negative About Affirmative Action"- three white students charge in a lawsuit that the University of Michigan denied them entry but enrolled black students who they say were less qualified academically. Critics charge that using race as a standard for admissions is illegal, while Michigan University spokesmen claim that it the only way to achieve diversity. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson) (OAD: 10/29/00)

"The Power of Positive Speaking"- a report on the current popularity of motivational speakers and the people who spend large sums of money to hear them. Includes interviews with Peter Lowe, Zig Ziglar and George Campbell, who have earned millions telling people how to be successful. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian) (OAD: 04/16/00)

Andy Rooney Topic: - "Drink Up" - the popularity of soft drinks (OAD: 03/18/01)

48 HOURS

05/01/02 "Teen Idols" - examines the making of modern teen idols and the concerns of selling an image that may be too sexually explicit for teens and pre-teens. Includes interviews with Aaron Carter, the 14-year-old brother of Nick Carter of the Backstreet Boys, and his manager/mother Jane; 41-year-old manager Johnny Wright, known as the "idol maker," who also answers critics, including mother and author Carol Weston, who think that sexy young singers with their provocative dresses are sending a mixed message to young girls; Justin Timberlake, of *NSYNC; Davy Jones, former singer for the Monkees who now raises thoroughbred horses; Christina Milian, a 20-year-old singer who aims to be a role model for young teens and has launched a program called "The Secret of Self-Esteem" with the help of Dr. Anne Kearney-Cook, a psychologist. (C: Harold Dow, Troy Roberts, Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins - P: Chuck Stevenson, Robert Campos, Michael Maloy, Mead Stone, Greg McLaughlin)

05/03/02 "Perfect"- focuses on the growing popularity of cosmetic surgical and non-surgical procedures, including reports on: Sandra Jones, Nancy Johnstone and Panny Nickel, three lifelong friends who at 53, decided to have facelifts together; the arrest in St. Petersburg, Florida of former doctor Daniel Callahan who lost his medical license seven years ago due to charges of malpractice and sexual abuse of his patients, but continued to practice; the use of Botox (botulinum toxin), a new FDA-approved treatment for wrinkles; the use of lasers; a procedure by which fat taken from part of a patient's body is used to el

05/29/02 "Wall Street Prophets"- a report on stock analysts working for big brokerage houses whose advice is geared to make them, rather than clients, wealthy. Includes an interview with Tom Brown, a former analyst for Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette, who turned down the firm's offer of $400,000 in severance pay because it entailed his silence.

(C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy, Casey Morgan) (OAD: 01/30/01)

"Strong Medicine"- an interview with Dr. Juan Asenio, a senior trauma surgeon at Los Angeles USC Medical Center, a public hospital in one of the most dangerous and violent areas of Los Angeles, where random, drive-by gang shootings are a frequent occurrence. Because he has lost so many kids, Asenio has launched a very personal crusade... he tries to prevent young people from ending up as trauma patients by talking to them and showing them graphic pictures of his operating room following a shooting. (C: Ian Rather - P: Tom Anderson)

"Secret Weapon" - this past year President Bush awarded the Congressional Medal for heroism to a group of Navajo Indians -- U.S. veterans of World War II. The Navajos, many recruited from government schools designed to "Americanize" them, were assigned to a secret mission -- the creation of a code that would baffle the Japanese. Includes interviews with: Chester Nez and Bill Toledo, two of the 'codetalkers' and with Richard Bonham, a U.S. Marine assigned to protect them. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa R. Cohen, Elizabeth Pearson)
